

Veterinary certificate

In order for a veterinary certificate to be justified in relation to for example presenting a dog at a dog show, the veterinarian must be able to make a solemn declaration that he/she has previously established personally that the dog in question has been normal as regards the disease in question. Consequently, the veterinarian must not base his/her statement on information acquired from the owner of the dog. The previous normal condition must have been noted by personal inspection.

Dansk Kennel Klub
Parkvej 1
DK-2680 Solrød Strand
Tlf. +45 56 18 81 00
www.dansk-kennel-klub.dk

This certificate is employed in connection with shows, trials and registration under the auspices of the DKK

Date	Breed
Pedigree name
Identification number (read on the dog, not on the pedigree certificate)
Registration number
Sex	Colour
Special physical indications
Kind of disease
The undersigned has previously ascertained personally that the above dog has been normal as regards the disease in question <input type="checkbox"/> yes <input type="checkbox"/> no

Stamp of the veterinarian and signature on his/her honour